

blan's army. Captain Lee, one of their number, declares that the South will continue to fight to the last, and that their reverses have not disheartened them. They expect to be driven out of Virginia and all the border States, and from their export towns; but that when we meet them in the interior, the men for the man, they will show us that they are unconquerable.

THE STARS AND STRIPES FLYING OVER FREDERICKS.

BURG.—This morning Major Davis, of the Harris Light Cavalry, established his headquarters in the Farmers' Bank in Frederickburg, as Provost Marshal of the city, hoisting the Stars and Stripes permanently for the first time in the town since the rebellion. Our pickets are thrown out beyond the city, and we are in quiet possession of the entire place. Yesterday a large amount of flour, corn, rice, hospital and other stores, ammunition, &c., were discovered and seized, together with several stores of arms. A large and perfectly new rebel flag was found, and the railroad depot. President Buchanan's Postmaster, yesterday arrested in the Post Office, and will be held in custody until an equivalent for the money plundered from the Post Office Department is disgorged.

ARKANSAS VIRTUALLY RESTORED TO THE UNION.—The following letter was received here this morning, by the Hon. J. B. Stoebe, of New York, from his brother, a brigadier general, acting as major general in commanding a division:

FREDERICKSBURG, ARK., April 26, 1862.
Dear Brother.—We expect to reach Frederickburg tomorrow or next day. Our movements have been delayed by constant rains and high water. Some of the regiments have been impeded, and the mud almost impassable. The secession troops have all left Arkansas except five or six hundred, and my cavalry are after them. I consider Arkansas in the Union again essentially. * * * We have no fighting except skirmishing. The rebels would not stand.

Yours, &c. F. STEELE.

FORWARDING ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATS TO THE NATION.

An address has been prepared by the prominent demagogues of the country, and will be placed before the public within a day or two. Its object is to rally the democratic party. It invites the co-operation of all those who desire to go for the constitution as it is, and the Union as it was, in the next political campaign. The document is skillfully drawn up, and will produce a sensation when it is promulgated.

THE REORGANIZATION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The movement of the democratic leaders to organize a democratic party for the next campaign is regarded with disfavor by the border State men, who have perilled everything for the Union. They say that they are unwilling to be driven into its embrace now, or to be compelled to choose between radical democracy, that is active in the rebellion, or radical abolitionism, that openly espouses disunion, and is equally culpable with radical democracy. They say that the conservative men of the country shall at least stand with them between these two extremes, and sustain the administration in restoring the Union and maintaining the constitution.

Against all these, the democratic party, the North or South. They point to the revolution unanimously adopted by Congress that this war is waged for the restoration of the Union. They say that the choice is in his efforts to defend the constitution from both avowed and secret traitors. The democrats are working hard for a reorganization of their party; but the conservative men of all parties insist that there shall be no such thing as a reorganization of the party. It is proposed now that the conservative men of the nation shall maintain the administration until the ship of state has been righted and repaired.

THE HONORABLE RESPECTING FOREIGN INTERVENTION IN AMERICAN AFFAIRS.

The rumors and statements of foreign intervention to force the government to cease its efforts to put down the rebellion, as well as those about projected armaments and compromises with the rebels, are without foundation.

A TRIP TO MANASSAS—THE EMANCIPATION QUESTION SOLVING ITSELF.

I have just returned from Manassas—the job of getting up and back having been a somewhat difficult military operation. What I saw and heard there would furnish matter for several columns of the HERALD, if Manassas were not now utterly eclipsed by the stirring news from Yorktown. I went up on the top of a car load of hay, and came down in a freight car, without seats, filled with fugitive slaves, men, women and children. For three weeks, at the rate of twenty, thirty, forty and fifty per year, these contrabands, from the rear of Gen. Banks and Gen. McDowell, have been pouring down the Manassas Junction. They are strewn all along the road in government employ, and a portion of Duff Green's row in Washington, is filled with them, where they are fed from the Treasury until they can find employment. I dare say, if the rebels are now driven out of Virginia, and still persist in this rebellion, that in the course of a few weeks the institution of slavery in Virginia will be turned upside down and inside out by this contraband movement. I have talked with many of these fugitive negroes, and they have singularly extravagant ideas upon this subject, and they say that "de slaves left behind know all about it, and are just waiting for the United States Army to open de way." First, the exhortations of the rebel army, and secondly, the exhortations of the destructive work of the Vandals that are in our own army, have literally reduced hundreds of Virginia families, who were wealthy one year ago, to downright beggary. For example, I asked a lady, a woman at Manassas, who had a family of children around her, why she left her master? and she answered, "fore God, wha massa told me de order mornin' dat he had nothing left for his own children—no bread, no meat, no money and nothing to eat, and told me to take mine and go—dat's true." "How did your master become so poor?" "He soldiers, sah; de Southern soldiers take me and all, and de Northern soldiers take de rest—leave not even a chicken on de place." And, by the way, from intelligent men among the soldiers themselves, I have heard of the most horrible atrocities committed by our own men in uniform between here and the Blue Ridge, and that these vandals have utterly destroyed in their region the "Old South" sentiment which had existed there. "The officers were to be popular with the men after they get home," said a shrewd corporal to me, "and that is the reason why some of our officers permit their men to disgrace the army and the government by their brutalities." Cannot this business be stopped?

The idea extensively prevails here that there is a trick in the rebel evacuation of Yorktown, and that Monsieur Mercier is at the bottom of it. You know that the rebel Congress shut up about a few days ago and cleared out, got by, way of the James river bank, for fear of being intercepted by either Burnside or Banks if they should attempt to run off by rail. Men of Southern sympathies say to me, "This government is in a fog—it does not see what is going on—dat Mercier fixed it at Richmond for Jeff Davis to back out, so that the French Emperor could appear to the magnanimity of Old Abe with a good grace, and get all the credit of a treaty of peace and a general amnesty, whereby France will become the favor of the commercial dealer with the South until there is another rebellion." It has even been suggested to me that France is beginning to be suspicious that if we continue to push back the rebel armies we may push them into Mexico, and thus break up the game of Napoleon in that quarter.

You know that Mr. Seward the other evening did and win the officers of the French, frigate Gasconelle, with Mons. Mercier; and this is here understood as a bid for Louis Napoleon against Jeff Davis. I have reason to believe that there is something in this idea, and that this entertainment was a good card well played by Mr. Seward. In his quiet way he may seem to be indifferent to, or incredulous concerning, European intrigues; but he plays to baffles them all that.

THE ATROCITIES AT MANASSAS.

The publication of the report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War on the brutalities of the rebels at Manassas created some surprise here, and was not sanctioned by the Cabinet; at least Mr. Seward was opposed to its publicity, and one of our writers regretted its appearance. It is looked upon as an unnecessary exposure of barbarities perpetrated by a few reckless rebel leaders and soldiers as the work of the entire people of the South, when a large majority in that section would utterly revolt at the savage atrocities of some of the troops.

COIN FLOWING INTO THE TREASURY.

The Treasury has received nearly three millions in coin in exchange for the seven and three-tenths bonds. There is nothing to fear in the way of scarcity of money in the Treasury.

THE REPORTED COUNTERFEIT TREASURY NOTES.

Notwithstanding the various rumors from different sources of existing counterfeit upon the United States

Treasury notes, it is an ascertained fact that as yet nothing of the kind has been put in circulation. The Treasury Department is not blind to the danger of counterfeiting, and of the extraordinary inducements for fraud offered by the immense amount and wide spread circulation of this currency. The Department is alive to the necessity of adopting measures for the protection of their notes as a great duty to the public. The cry of fraud and forgery is easily started, and already, whether from hostile motives, or from mere alarm, much alarm has been occasioned, and distrust and panic, not easily allayed, have been excited. It is apparent that it will not do to wait until counterfeiters are actually put in circulation, but that measures shall be taken boldly and systematically to prevent their utterance. This can be and should be done immediately, by the adoption of a system that may be arranged for this purpose with assurance of absolute success.

RETURN OF THE FRENCH MINISTER FROM YORKTOWN.—Count Mercier returned from his visit to Yorktown yesterday. He has had an opportunity to see both sides, and is strongly impressed with the superiority of the Union General Commanding and the Union Army.

THE REMOVED AMNESTY TO THE REBELS.

The President has no idea of issuing a proclamation of amnesty until the rebellion shall be effectively crushed out, nor will there be any intervention of foreign Powers. The government proposes to reconquer the whole Union, not only without foreign interference, but, if necessary, against it, and will listen to no compromise until the rebels have laid down their arms, and the seceding States have resumed their allegiance to the Union, the constitution and the flag.

THE PROCLAMATION OPENING THE SOUTHERN PORTS.

The Secretary of the Treasury and War are preparing the details of the proclamation for opening the cotton ports, as to what articles are contraband and how the trade is to be restricted so as not to ensure to the benefit of the rebels. The whole programme is expected to be ready by the time the official announcement of the federal occupation of New Orleans shall be received.

LETTERS FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The following notice has been issued:

Post Office Department, Washington, May 6, 1862. All letters for New Orleans should be addressed to the New York Post Office, for transmission by government steamers in the regular mail. JOHN A. KANON, First Assistant Postmaster General.

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS.

Lieut. Alexander Murray has been detached by the Navy Department from the Louisiana, and ordered to the command of the United States steam gunboat Walker.

Acting Second Assistant Engineer John W. Baker is detached from the Flag and ordered to the Fort Henry; and Acting Assistant Engineer M. Dindran is detached from the Fort Henry and ordered to the Flag.

MR. CAMERON EN ROUTE FOR RUSSIA.

Mr. Cameron goes to New York to-morrow morning, to sail for Russia in the Persia.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION IN THE SENATE.

The ultra-conservative members received their questions in the Senate this afternoon. Senator Wilson was blood-thirsty in his speech, and Senator Wade declared that if the whole matter would be referred to a select committee, that the country would infer that the enemies of practical confederacy—that is summary proceedings without trial by jury—were defeated. The Senate referred all the bills, eight in number, to a select committee, thus evincing their unwillingness to destroy the guarantee of the constitution. It is probable that Mr. Collamer's bill will finally be adopted.

THE TREATY WITH BOLIVIA.

Captain Schultz, of New York, sails in the Persia to-morrow, as bearer of the treaty with Bolivia.

OUR TREATY WITH NICARAGUA.

It is probable that the long-pending treaty with Nicaragua, one or two paragraphs of which, as originally made, were objected to by that country, will be finally ratified by the Senate in a day or two.

VISIT OF THE MANASSAS MONITOR TO THE HOUSE OF CONGRESS.

Captain Worden, of the Monitor, made his appearance in the Senate Chamber and the House to-day, with his head enveloped in a silk night cap, and his eyes covered with a shade. He was lionized by Senators and representatives, all of whom shook him warmly by the hand, and congratulated him upon the prospect of his recovery, and his eyesight.

THE STEVENS BETRAYAL.

The Board appointed to make an examination of the Stevens battery, have made a report that is unflattering to the Navy Department. They will be required to specify particularly what charges in the specifications are necessary. Their report is in favor of the completion of the battery. Congress has appropriated the means, and public sentiment, here and elsewhere, demands this experiment of American enterprise shall be made. If red tape had been consulted we should have had no Monitor, and it will not do now for red tape to deprive the nation of a marine battery in every respect superior to the Monitor, and a terror to the marine of the whole world.

A NATIONAL FOUNDRY AT CHICAGO, AND NAVY YARDS ON THE LAKE.

Mr. Arnold, of Illinois, introduced a bill in the House today, providing for a national foundry at Chicago, for the manufacture of ordnance and munitions of war; also naval yards upon Lake Michigan, Erie and Ontario. The bill appropriates two hundred thousand dollars for the foundry, one hundred thousand dollars each for the yards upon Lake Michigan and Lake Erie, and fifty thousand dollars for that on Lake Ontario.

The American and Foreign Christian Union.

The thirtieth anniversary of the American and Foreign Christian Union took place yesterday forenoon at Irving Hall, a rather small audience, most of which was composed of ladies, being present.

The exercises were opened with singing an appropriate hymn, followed by prayer and reading the Scriptures—Ps. li and Eccles. i.

Rev. A. E. Campbell then proceeded to read an abstract of the Treasurer's report, from which it appeared that there was a balance on hand at the commencement of the year of $1,487, the total receipts this year being $63,944.53, the disbursements of the same leaving a balance of $2,316.77 in the hands of the Treasurer.

The annual report of the Executive Committee was read by the corresponding Secretary, of which the following is an abstract:

The receipts of the society last year from collections in the churches and societies, including the sum of $55,000, which were more than those of the preceding year, if we deduct from that year the collections of the year of Paris, by several thousand dollars. The expenditures were nearly equal to those of the year.
